

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES TRANSPORTATION COMMAND

Office of Public Affairs, Scott Air Force Base, Illinois 62225-5357

Patrick L. White

A civil servant of the U.S. Air Force, Patrick White became the Chief of Facilities Management and Safety for United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM) in September 2015 following seven years as Facilities Supervisor for USTRANSCOM.

Prior to joining the civil service in 2008, he was employed by Northrop Grumman as an analyst focusing on privatization of utility services for U.S.-based Air Force installations.

Prior to joining Northrop Grumman, he served for 21 years in U.S. Air Force Operations Management until his retirement as a Master Sergeant in 2007 as the Operations Management Subject Matter Expert at Air Mobility Command at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois.

His assignments included tours at England Air Force Base Louisiana; four years at Spangdahlem Air Base, Germany; Travis Air Force Base California; United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado; one year at Kunsan Air Force, South Korea; and, Andrews Air Force Base Maryland. During his career, White deployed worldwide in support of Operations RESTORE HOPE and ENDURING FREEDOM.

White is the recipient of two Meritorious Service Medals, four Air Force Commendation Medals, three Air Force Achievement Medals and numerous campaign and expeditionary medals.

A native of Texas, White is married with one son.

He graduated from the U.S. Air Force Senior Non-Commissioned Officer (NCO) Academy and the U.S. Air Force NCO Academy, the U.S. Air Force NCO Leadership School and the NCO Preparatory Course.

(Current as of February 2017)